

The Olive Bucknall Memorial Lecture 2018

In conjunction with the launch of his new book on electro-convulsive therapy, A Critical A-Z of Electroshock, Craig Newnes will give the 2018 Olive Bucknall Memorial Lecture on Friday 23rd November 2.30-4.00p.m.

The Gateway
Chester Road, Shrewsbury SY1 1NB

Olive Bucknall was a much-loved mental health activist who died in October 2018, aged 97. She was a fierce critic of electro-convulsive therapy, having received it herself after a breakdown caused by witnessing the damaging effect ECT had on her son Terry. An obituary of her appeared in this month's Guardian newspaper.

Craig Newnes was a close friend of Olive's and is a leading critic of the Psy industry. He was Director of the Department of Psychological Therapies in Shropshire's NHS Trust for almost 20 years.

There will be opportunities after the lecture for questions and comments from the audience as well as to buy signed copies of A Critical A-Z of Electroshock.

Olive and Terry in 2009

